

Do You Think Communist China Should be Admitted to United Nations?

By OLIVER B. JAYNES

Forces are at work — and an effort will be made in 1954 — to admit the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations. This is an issue so vital that every American citizen should let President Eisenhower and Congress know how he or she stands. Opening the doors of the UN to the Chinese Communists would have such an adverse effect upon our relations with the Free World in Asia that those nations might be lost to the Communist bloc. It would be another surrender to appeasement. It would be admitting to our family of Free Nations the very people who carried on a war against the United Nations and mistreated and tortured American prisoners of war in Korea. It would increase — rather than lessen — the threat of another world war.

Perhaps you have made up your mind on this subject — most Americans have. If so, you should sign the petition to President Eisenhower which is sponsored by "The Committee for One Million Against the Admission of Communist China to the United Nations." For the benefit of those who may be undecided — or who have not given this threat to their future much thought — we are re-printing below the petition. It gives eight reasons why the United States should fight to the last ditch to oppose this action which will be advocated by the USSR and supported by some other nations. Every American should read every word of this petition — and then act upon it. We will tell you afterwards what you can do about it.

THIS IS THE PETITION:

We hereby express our opposition to the admission of the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations for the following reasons:

1. Such admission would destroy the purposes, betray the letter, and violate the spirit of the charter of the United Nations. The charter dedicates the organization to insure peace by promoting freedom and respect of human rights, and subordinates the admission of new states to their ability and willingness, in the judgment of the member nations, to carry out the obligations defined above. The so-called Chinese People's Republic is constitutionally unable to do this since it officially declares itself to be a "dictatorship" based on "democratic centralism." (Articles 1 and 2 of the Organic Law of the Central Government of the Chinese People's Republic). This is the basic principle of Communist totalitarianism and excludes freedom of discussion or criticism of government; that is, it excludes freedom and democracy altogether.

2. Even if the so-called Chinese People's Republic were qualified for admission under the Charter the fact still remains that the duly constituted government of China exists and functions, not only as the rightful government of China but as a charter member of the United Nations. In order to give membership to the usurpers the legitimate government of China would have to be expelled. Such action would be an outrage against human decency and international justice.

3. The so-called Chinese People's Republic has shown its unwillingness to carry out the obligations of the Charter systematically disregarding every human right and violating every freedom.

4. By participating in Communist aggression in Korea and making war on the United Nations it has proved itself an aggressor.

5. Its admission would destroy the prestige and the position of the United States and of the Free World in Asia. The countries of that continent which still resist Communist aggression or infiltration would be discouraged by the cynical surrender of the Free World to expediency and appeasement and the betrayal of the ideals of the United Nations. The Asian nations, in turn, would then make fatal compromises with the Communist bloc.

6. The so-called Chinese People's Republic violated the most elementary laws of war in mistreating, torturing and murdering United Nations soldiers who were prisoners of war in an unlawful war which it waged against the very organization in which its supporters now claim membership for it.

7. At a time when Communist dictatorship seems to be badly shaken inside the USSR and in its satellite Empire, the admission of the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations would restore the prestige and authority of the Soviet Government. It would help to destroy the hope of the enslaved people for ultimate freedom. This hope is one of the chief deterrents which has restrained the Kremlin from risking a world-wide conflict.

8. The admission of the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations would encourage subversive totalitarian movements in the free nations of the world in the expectation that the success of the movements would be sanctioned by the free nations which still survive. Thus the danger of a new war would be vastly increased by such rewarding of aggressors.

Therefore, the undersigned Americans respectfully request of the President of the United States that he defend the freedom and the decency of the Free World by continuing firmly to oppose admission of the present so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations. They express the wish that their petition be communicated to the United Nations and the hope that their appeal for peace and freedom will be heard and supported by all freedom loving peoples and governments throughout the world.

You can go on record with the President and Congress as being opposed to admitting Red China to the UN by signing this petition. The petition will be in the hands next week of all civic groups in the community — the service clubs, women's organizations and fraternal orders. Petitions will also be available for signature at The Desert Sun office in The Center and at the Chamber of Commerce. Extra copies may be obtained at The Desert Sun for those who will circulate them among their friends.

Time is of utmost importance in this effort. All of the petitions must be returned to The Desert Sun by Friday, January 8. They will be forwarded immediately to "The Committee for One Million" and will be assembled by them with others from all over the United States, bound and forwarded to the President as a mass expression of the American people against the admission of Red China to the United Nations.

Don't let this opportunity pass by — let your President and your Congress know where YOU stand on this decision of far-flung importance to this nation and to the Free World. Make a New Year's resolution to take a greater interest in the policies and decisions of your elected representatives. Start off by signing the petition against admission of Red China to the United Nations!

Civic Groups Spread Christmas Cheer to All

(Desert Sun Photo)
CHRISTMAS FOR ALL—
Civic groups throughout the Village cooperated this year in the preparation of the annual Christmas baskets for the needy families in Palm

Mrs. B. H. Poliak, members of the Welfare and Friendly Aid, who with the Elks Club was in charge of arrangements.

City Groups Spread Yule Cheer to All

Through the cooperation of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association and clubs and individuals of Palm Springs, Christmas will be a merrier one for many children and their parents this year.

"Close cooperation of almost every club in Palm Springs with the Welfare and Friendly Aid association has made it possible to spread Christmas cheer far and wide this year," Mrs. Earl Coffman, president of the Aid society said yesterday.

WELFARE and Friendly Aid association and the Elks club divided the task of supplying the number of baskets needed. The baskets contained turkeys, cranberries, stuffing, candies and all the other staples to carry the family a few days after the holiday according to William Olsen, Exalted Ruler of the Elks.

The Welfare and Friendly Aid provided the toys for the baskets and the Elks made the deliveries.

Cerebral palsy children were not forgotten, Olsen said, and four station wagons laden with toys were delivered to them.

PALM SPRINGS Woman's club, under leadership of Margaret Menasse, president, donated money raised through a luncheon and style show, to the Christmas project. Monday they gave another party to collect canned goods and toys which were turned over for distribution to the needy.

Rotary and Kiwanis clubs donated cash for the project and Owen B. Coffman Legion auxiliary made up baskets of their own for their people with the Welfare society providing toys.

THE STREBE THEATERS donated their theaters, employees' time to present a Christmas show for all Palm Springs children with the price of admission being a can of food. These cans were picked up by Rotary club and taken to the basement of the Safeway store which Manager Joe Butler offered as headquarters for the assembling of the gifts.

Soroptimists gave their aid in sorting the canned goods and

Not far enough, was the lesson learned this week by William Schaeffer who was arrested in Beaumont on a local warrant for issuing three bad checks totaling $99.18.

Schaeffer issued the checks between November 23 and 25, and then left Palm Springs. But he went to work for a Beaumont plate glass company, and was sent here on a job. While here, someone recognized him, and reported to the police the name of the company.

Arrested Monday, he appeared in justice court Tuesday, and was held to answer in superior court by Judge Eugene Thier-

CHRISTMAS BUSINESS IN PALM SPRINGS BOOMS

By BILL RASHALL

On Dasher, On Dancer, Vixen, Cupid, Donner and Blitzen—And so Christmas came upon the Village and its surrounding resort area with the swiftness of Santa's reindeer. As quick as the wind and with the swiftness of passing time or lightning—as Blitzen means in German.

The last minute rush of shoppers crowded into mercantile establishments up and down Palm Canyon drive and on the other streets.

THE EARLIER pre-Christmas days found some of the merchants complaining that business "is not as good as it was last year."

Night club attendance, too, was reported as below that of last year and the same story was true with hotel owners and managers.

But all at once the picture changed. The majority of those who made these reports found quite suddenly that Santa Claus coupled with the magic name of Palm Springs is still the great lure for many who wanted to shop without the hustle, bustle, shoving and crowding found in metropolitan areas.

A CLOSER CHECK also indicated that business was just about the same as it was last year and the end of the gift

Saturday Night

They're all invited, all local and visiting teen-agers.

This was the word today from Ted McKinney, Youth Center director, and Howard Haddock, city recreation director, who are co-sponsoring a "Teen-Age Hop" Saturday night at the Polo Grounds Pavilion.

Jerry Fortunato and his six-piece orchestra will provide music for dancing.

This is the first dance co-sponsored by the two groups, and more are planned if it is successful.

Elect Dr. Kaplan New President of Boys' Club, Inc.

Dr. Julius Kaplan was elected president of Palm Springs Boys' Club, Inc., when directors of the organization met Thursday night. Charles Burket, retiring president, was in the chair.

Other officers elected were Dr. Charles H. Baldwin, first vice president; Charles MacFarland, second vice president; Earl Hough, treasurer; Dr. James H. Blackstone Jr., secretary.

Reports of the past year indicated that the club experienced a successful season under guidance of President Burket. Average attendance during the year was between 100 to 150 with Frank Partridge, director, and Dick Mayberry in charge of activities.

The Boys Club Little League baseball team won its second straight championship and the club scored in other athletic events during the year.

President Burket and the board voted a resolution of thanks to the many sponsors of Boys' Club events and extended a holiday greeting to all.

First Street Job Under State Act Near Completion

First street project in Palm Springs under the Improvement Act of 1911 is on its way toward completion.

Contract has been awarded to Hicks and Allred for the construction of concrete curbs and gutters and for placing a hot-plant mix pavement on Calle Encelia between Ramon road and Camino Parocela. It is to be completed before January 31.

THE BID of $4,057.50 was below the estimate of Public Works Director John Keefe, and is expected to encourage other property owners to initiate similar projects, several of which already are started.

The Improvement Act of 1911 of the State of California establishes an Assessment District, so as to distribute the cost of an improvement, which may be street pavement, sewers or both.

TO START the formation of such a district, according to Keefe, a group of property owners who desire an improvement and who own 60 percent or more of the area affected by the improvement, submits to the city council a petition stating such a desire.

This petition is prepared by the city engineering department at the request of one or more property owners who in

Valuable Indian Land Prepared for Early Sale

Attorney Eugene T. McGann, court-appointed commissioner of the sale of Indian land to satisfy a court judgement, was in the Village last week to inspect the property to be sold, and to secure information prior to preparing a prospectus outlining the methods and procedure of the sale.

This information will be available at the local Indian office, as soon as prepared, and from McGann at 4026 Rosemead Boulevard, Rosemead, California.

The sale had been set for November 20, but was ordered postponed because the first advertisement was legally defective as it improperly de-

25 BY THE 25TH, PLEA FOR COMMUNITY CHEST

"Let's get 25 by the 25th" . . . That has been Gus Kettmann's plea all this week. By that he means "let's get $25,000 by December 25th" for the Palm Springs Community Chest drive.

And today he is happy to report the Chest drive has hit the $25,000 mark. Right after the holidays the last $10,000 must be raised to complete the Chest's goal of $35,000 for the Palm Springs charity needs in the coming year. With a total of six agencies needing financial assistance from the local Community Chest, the goal must be reached as soon as possible.

Kettmann, president of the Community Chest drive, announced the local Chest office at 457 North Palm Canyon drive will be closed until Monday, January 4, 1954. Checks still may be mailed in during this week, and they will be deposited each day.

Powerful

Villager Finds Whiskey Potent

A drink carries a powerful wallop!

This was the lesson learned Monday by Leo Hawkins, 31, 719 Date street, who was sentenced by Judge Eugene Thieriau to 30 days in county jail on a charge of shoplifting a bottle of whiskey from a local drug store.

Hawkins was caught in the act by Sgt. John Herrera, who was parked outside the drug store.

The Hotel and Apartment House group have plans to aid substantially in the final push to reach the goal. Also the business houses are coming through with an extra push in the form of a store-to-store campaign. This is an added community spirit shown by the business houses, for their busiest time is the before Christmas rush. But they have taken time out from their various businesses each day to make several calls in their block to pick up contribution checks for their locality.

Kettmann, president of the Community Chest drive, announced the local Chest office at 457 North Palm Canyon drive will be closed until Monday, January 4, 1954. Checks still may be mailed in during this week, and they will be deposited each day.

New Film Era Begins Here with CinemaScope Showing

Villagers tonight will get their first view of CinemaScope, the new motion picture process which has caused a revolution in Hollywood studios even greater than that created 27 years ago when sound movies were introduced.

Twentieth Century Fox's CinemaScope production of "The Robe" in Technicolor will be presented at the Village Theatre by Earle Strebe who said the showing of this picture is one of the most important events in local theater history.

IN ORDER to show this CinemaScope production, which covers a screen approximately two and one-half times wider than the customary motion picture site, the Village Theatre has been reconstructed with a new panoramic screen and special projection equipment.

"CinemaScope achieves the illusion of depth without the use of glasses," Strebe explained. "It's life-like, panoramic scope, plus stereophonic sound combine to make the audience experience complete engulfment and participation in the action."

"ACTUALLY CinemaScope is a multiple process. It consists of an anamorphic lens, a curved screen specially designed to reflect greater light and stereophonic sound. The anamorphic lens makes it possible for a 35-mm. camera to 'reach out' to each side as the eye does and compress a wide angle scene on a narrow strip of film. When this film is projected through a compensating lens attached to the theatre projection machine it spreads the image horizontally to its original or to an aspect ratio of 2.55 to 1. The screen is so proportioned and covers the entire proscenium.

TO FURTHER ENHANCE the startling effect of CinemaScope on the audience, Twentieth Century-Fox also has developed a new single stereophonic sound system which places four sound tracks on one strip of picture film. This makes it possible to pick up dialogue or sound effects from its point of origin on the panoramic screen.

"The Robe" starts tonight with two shows at 6:40 and 9:20. Starting Christmas Day there will be three shows daily with the first at 4 p.m. Sunday there will be four showings of "The Robe."

Thug Slugs Man and Takes Cash, Report to Police

First strong-armed robbery to occur in Palm Springs in several months happened Sunday opening, with the victim losing $25 after being struck on the head and falling to the pavement.

Anton Linquist, 60, 232 South Belardo road, told police that he had eaten dinner at a local restaurant and when paying his check had brought a small roll of money from his pocket. He then left, walking west on Arenas toward Belardo road.

Before he reached Belardo, he was struck from behind, and fell to the sidewalk. Linquist then was robbed of $25, with suspect overlooking $20.

THE SHEPHERDS WATCHED — In a desert setting, resembling the countryside around Bethlehem, the students at the Chase School at Thousand Palms presented a pageant of the Nativity Sunday. It was dusk and the hills were a rose-purple as the shepherds came to open the simple, but moving drama, and the boys of the school sang "O, Little Town of Bethlehem."

Beside the boys and their parents, 120 visitors from Palm Springs joined in the candle-lighting ceremony. Ensign Cornelius Thurston Chase IV, carrying out a family tradition, lighted the master candle. The desert setting, the moving drama of the age-old story, and the use of live animals lent great appeal to the presentation, which had been planned and arranged by Mrs. Thurston Chase.

Coordinating all of these activities was the Welfare and Friendly Aid association, checking and cross checking to see that no one was overlooked.

Every member donated and dressed a doll. Representatives visited families to fully understand their needs. Volunteers helped collect the needed items.

All assembled the baskets yesterday morning with Mrs. A. G. Hoff in charge of this phase.

ALL OF THE TRUCKS needed to deliver the baskets were furnished by the Lions club.

Mrs. Coffman, in behalf of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association, expressed deep gratitude for the cooperation of the civic groups and individuals who made Christmas merrier for more people this year.

Contributions to Care May be Deducted from U.S. Tax

Donations to CARE for general relief distribution of its packages overseas are deductible from income taxes, the ruling section of the Office of Collector of Internal Revenue has declared. Edward J. Flynn, western director of the non-profit welfare organization announced today.

CARE contributions fall under the 20 percent gross income deductions allowed for charity, according to Mr. Flynn. "Many people do not take advantage of all the concessions the government makes and take only a fraction of the charity deductions they are allowed under the law," Mr. Flynn said. "The federal government, recognizing the good accomplished by humanitarian programs financed by these donations, encourages giving to such causes and lightens the donors tax burden accordingly. Under certain circumstances contributions place the tax-payer in a lower bracket where his saving amounts to more than his gift. Many persons have profited by checking carefully the deductions to which they are entitled."

Contributions to CARE, which accept contributions in any amount may be sent to CARE, 855 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

Grand Jurors Reveal Abuses in Relief Laws

Abuses in the county's relief program which show a need for tightening of the laws, were reported in a 1,500 word report by the county grand jury Tuesday.

The jury's report said the County Welfare department under direction of John McIntyre was handing out relief strictly according to the law but that the law was too loose.

Citing instances, the jurors said that two brothers, together making $1,200 per month were receiving aid for their aged parents. One of the brothers, the jury report cited, was a highly paid county official.

Many other cases of abuse of the law were cited and the jury report recommended many changes in the law to eliminate the loopholes which pave the way for the flagrant abuses.

scribed the lands to be sold.

THE VALUABLE Indian land was ordered sold to satisfy a judgment for attorney's fees for Oliver O. Clark, Judge John W. Preston, Sr., and David Saltee, for their representation a few years ago of Lee Arenas, Guadalupe Arenas (deceased) and Fleuteria Brown Arenas (also known as Della Nicholson) in establishing rights of allotment. The court judgment totals approximately $130,000.

THE THREE ATTORNEYS successfully established the rights of their clients to the land they now hold, in a court battle which was carried all the way to the United States Supreme Court.

The nine parcels are located in Sections 14 and 26, considered among the most valuable Indian-owned land.

Only sufficient to satisfy the judgment will be sold.

Wired Music Popular in Palm Springs

Sweeping the Village in popularity these days is a new entertainment media rapidly mounting in use in both private homes, commercial establishments and clubs.

According to Howard Morris, owner and manager of the Palm Springs Music company, a growing number of persons have installed wired-music with the availability of such entertainment at one's finger tips by the mere flip of a switch 24 hours a day.

The music emanates from the Palm Springs Music company and is transmitted by leased telephone wire to a speaker or speakers installed by the Morris music company.

"We are utterly amazed at the number of requests for this musical service," Morris said. "Installations, sometimes with speakers in two or three rooms of a house are being installed. The music may be used as background melodies or turned up in concert volume. Many of the finer homes, clubs and business establishments are using this service now."

Be Patient

Waste Dep't Gets its Only Holiday

City Manager Robert W. Peterson yesterday said that employees of the city waste disposal department tomorrow, Christmas Day, will take the one day a year they have as a holiday.

There will be no collections. He asked Villagers to be patient and said that the department would catch up with its work speedily after Christmas.

"Outside of Sundays, it's the only day in the year they enjoy a holiday," he said.

COUNTY JUDGES OPPOSE ASSESSMENTS ON FINES

Judge Ray Hawley of San Geronimo judicial district (Banning) was elected president of the Riverside County Constables, Marshals and Judges association, spoke on the new law. Several judges in Inglewood and one in San Diego have already publicly announced that they will refuse to enforce collection of the added assessment, Kaplan said.

These judges have declared that they feel the law is unconstitutional, Kaplan explained. In answer to a question from the floor, he gave the opinion that a judge who refused to collect the assessment would not be liable to disciplinary action.

THIS OPINION was challenged by Ray Hicks, Riverside county judge, who said that the defendant and not the judge should take the question of the law's constitutionality to the appellate courts.

Judge Philip Truby of the Beaumont judicial district asked, "Suppose I fine a man $10, and $10 is all he has in his pocket. He can't pay the $1 assessment."

"So now I have to sentence him to jail. That would be a half day sentence for the $1. But by the time the defendant has been taken from Beaumont to Banning he has served his time."

"What do you do in a case like that?" Truby asked.

"In my opinion," Kaplan answered, "the best thing to do would be to reduce the fine to $3 and then collect the $1 assessment."

THE COUNTY ASSOCIATION also expressed itself unofficially against a request from the district attorney's office that the judges gather information for the state board of equalization.

A letter from the D. A.'s office read at the meeting, asked that in cases involving misuse of intoxicants the judges should attempt to learn where the defendants purchased the liquor. These places should then be named on a form provided for forwarding to the state board.

The judges applauded Truby when the latter said, "I don't think judges should be put in the position of acting as stool pigeons for the district attorney."

Although several other judges expressed the same sentiments, no resolution was offered for action.

Quick Hop

Drug Evidence
Found by Police

A quick "hop" and then on his way.

This was what a transient motorist did the other day, according to evidence found by Sgt. John Herrera which included a needle for puncturing the vein, and burnt matches on the floor.

The discovery was made in the rear room of a local service station.

It was a different type of hypodermic needle, prepared by sharpening to a pin point the end of a welding rod, Sgt. Herrera said.

Woman Robbed on Highway 99

Lee Margaret Herrera of Mexicali told Banning sheriff's station officers that a strong arm bandit who played the role of Good Samaritan, choked and robbed her of $17 in cash on Highway 99 near Palm Springs junction.

The woman said she was driving to Los Angeles and at the junction, her automobile ran out of gasoline. The man drove alongside and said he would take her to Cabazon for fuel. On the way back to her car, she said, he grabbed her by the throat, took her money and after forcing her from his car, drove away.

Hayden Rebukes Varner on Indio Court Changes

County Supervisor Homer Varner of the fourth district came in for a rebuke at Monday's meeting of the county board when Supervisor Irwin Hayden took exception to Varner's action in revising office space at the Indio branch county offices "without consulting others on the board."

Hayden asked Varner to remember that the board of supervisors is "running the county—not just one supervisor."

Varner's district takes in Indio, and Hayden told Varner that he should not think that "every supervisor is a little czar in his own district."

Varner told Hayden and the other members that he knew he had "no legal right" to change office space on his own, but that he felt he had done no substantial wrong.

He said it had appeared to him that some revisions should be made for the departments stationed in a building next to the county fairgrounds at Indio and that he had ordered the changes on his own to save the rest of the supervisors from being bothered with "minor" administrative matters.

Nathanson

Named President of Local NAACP

Jerry Nathanson, city councilman, was unanimously elected president of the Palm Springs Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at a meeting of that organization Saturday night.

According to records of the NAACP this marks the first time that other than a member of the colored race heads an NAACP chapter on the Pacific Coast. More than 500 members are numbered on the local roster.

Teeing Off at Tamarisk

BY AVERY ALLEN

The Ben Hogan party may be over but it will live for a long time in the memory of the guys and gals lucky enough to be there. It truly was the bestest of the bestest—a new high water mark. Miriam and I enjoyed hosting the Jaynes, Wheelers, Risvolds and Gambles—these people of the fourth estate are swell folks, believe me.

The big guest golf play on the next day followed by that cocktail thing that went all out at the club that evening made new friends and old very happy. And so to bed. The rest, if I may strike a little more serious note, will be a few flashbacks of some nice things I've seen done this past year—things that make you know the world is a little better than you sometimes think it is—things done by and for the little people—almost unnoticed—the spontaneous unselfish things that only truly humble people can do.

The man I met this year whom I now am proud to call friend with his big smile and a ready wit for all and who uncompromisingly works ten hours every day in his grocery store although suffering greatly. He is completely chair ridden with arthritis. For the example he sets us who are so much more fortunate may I send a special thank you. And to him and his loyal wife a Happy Christmas greeting.

And a warm greeting likewise to a seventy-six-year-old lady who gives greatly of her time and energy to the Red Cross Grey Ladies and who every week brings so much sunshine to the Patton State Hospital inmates. They join me in saying Merry Christmas.

My love and a hug to a local artist whom some of us knew when meals were hard to come by and who saved her nickels and had her friends do likewise until there was enough to bring a very sick gal from the East Coast back to her home here so she could be near her friends for her remaining days—same gal has a virtual refuge in her home for those who need a little help to get started. Only a few will know what I mean when I say she is a real Share-Du.

My handclasp in friendship to a guy who still sends a buck or two to a caddy in a sanitarium—which same bucks are not easy to make either. I read the thank you letter from the sick boy who used the money to repair his little bedside radio. He would join me in wishing his pal who didn't forget him a very big Holiday.

And a warm, warm greeting to a nurse in Indio, whose knowledge, patience and devotion to duty has saved many a life, including mine, and yet has time to raise a fine family, run a home and be a sturdy help in many civic affairs of the town. For them and from me a big Yuletide greeting to her.

Real thanks also that good fortune lets me know the guy that in such deep humility and

Establishment of Honor Farm for County Favored

Establishment of an honor farm for county prisoners to relieve congested conditions at the county jail was approved Monday by county supervisors and a committee was named to develop plans for the project and report back in 30 days.

The committee is composed of county officials including Sheriff Joe Rice and the district attorney's office.

Supervisors indicated that they may sell the county farm adjacent to the General Hospital and use the funds for the establishment of the honor farm.

Board members have been told by the county grand jury and Sheriff Rice that present overcrowding of the county jail constitutes an "emergency." The county jail was built to accommodate less than 150 prisoners. As of this week, it housed 237.

Callectric, Union Sign Contract

Representatives of California Electric Power company and Local 47 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL) last week signed a contract providing for a general wage increase of five cents per hour retroactive to December 1 for all bargaining unit employees.

The contract also provides an additional five cents per hour increase for electric employees who are regularly required to climb poles or structures, limited double time for night time emergency work and a no-strike pledge from the union. The contract is based on the principle of open shop.

Sincerity stood before hundreds of his friends who had come to do him honor and said he hoped he could keep the showcase of his heart clean in which he would cherish the trophy of his gratitude to them. May Christmas be big for him and his, he cannot but remain great forever.

But my very warmest hope for a big Holiday to a guy for what in my book was the biggest and finest deed of the year. A man who reached down deep for a big chunk of green to see that a caddy who had died would not have to be buried in Potter's Field. Thanks to him the boy now lies in a proper spot with a little headstone marking it. This is my highlight of the year—and to this man for the many little people whom he has helped in so many ways may I offer my hand and sincere thanks that I have been privileged to know him.

So to those few who did these fine things and to the many who might have, may I send my sincere wishes for a Happy Happy Birthday of One whose life was dedicated to just such deeds as these.

Hostess House to Open Monday in Historic Old McCallum Adobe

Opening of the Hostess House in the famous old McCallum Adobe on the west side of South Palm Canyon drive, just south of the intersection of Arenas road at 5 p.m., next Monday evening, was announced today by Mrs. Doris J. Wheaton.

Mrs. Wheaton, who has a background of many years in the food and catering business, with over seven years in New York City on West 52nd Street will utilize the continental idea of good foods in her new Palm Springs establishment.

FOR THE PAST three years she has successfully conducted the popular Hostess House in Marine avenue, Balboa Island, and will maintain her Hostess House here in the Winter season, and the Balboa Island restaurant in Summer.

In addition to a background of excellently operated restaurants during her business career, Mrs. Wheaton also was at one time in the world of successful music and dramatics.

Spangasbord will be the nightly feature of the new Hostess House, with luncheons and afternoon snacks also served.

THE FAMOUS old McCallum Adobe is one of the outstanding landmarks in this area, and was built by the Cahulla Indians for the late John Guthrie McCallum, father of Mrs. Austin G. McManus, who before her marriage was Pearl G. McCallum.

The old Adobe was the original home in Palm Springs of the McCallums, and was built of adobe from the Indian Hot Springs.

Scarrings put on the adobe bricks used in the building of the old Adobe by the Indians have been carefully preserved at Mrs. McManus' request, and lend themselves admirably to the attractive atmosphere of the new Hostess House.

WITH THE OLD ADOBE as the center of interest in the development of the groups of arts and crafts and western shops in that immediate and compact area, Mrs. McManus will shortly complete and open a chapel, a most unique addition to what will in all probability be known as the Village Green. An art exhibit outdoors is in the present plans for the Village Green, and also the chapel when completed and opened will house an indoor art exhibit. Mrs. McManus will announce future plans for the Village Green project as they develop. In the meantime the new Hostess House will attract many to its doors to enjoy its charm through the skillful serving of most excellent food in a most relaxing environment.

IN olden times, Dutch children set their wooden shoes by the chimney, so St. Nicholas would fill them with toys and fruit.

THEN they went right to bed, and they stayed there—because, in Holland, children believe St. Nicholas has a helper named Black Peter, who carries a bag of switches for all disobedient children!

AS the years went by, and most Dutch children stopped wearing wooden shoes, they hung up their stockings instead. And so began the charming custom now known all around the world.

AND to this day, there is no more exciting present than that fat stocking, full of mysterious lumps and angles, that a child takes down on Christmas morn!

SO, with this little legend as a token of appreciation to all our reader-friends, we'd like to wish you all a...

Indian Cagers Developing Says Varsity Coach

Palm Springs high school Varsity cagers are developing into a well coordinated unit which will give opponents much trouble in the future, Coach Ralph Watt reported today as the team started its Christmas vacation.

It will not be a complete lay-off though, as practice sessions are scheduled December 30 and 31. During the other days the gym floor will be refinished.

THE SCHEDULED game with Blythe last Saturday was postponed because of the Letterman Club and Girls Athletic Association sponsored dance here that night. The game has been rescheduled for January 23 at Blythe, and Blythe will play here February 13.

The next non-conference action for the Indians will be January 5, and then the local cagers enter the Riverside County League play on January 8 when they entertain the Coachella quintet.

"OUR BALL HANDLING is becoming better," Coach Watt said in his analysis of the team. "And the reserves are showing promise. In addition, the boys are demonstrating good rebounding ability."

Champion Cutting Horses at Thunderbird Gymkhana

Horsemen of Palm Springs area are expecting a treat Sunday when the top cutting horses of California compete at Thunderbird's Gymkhana. There will be a novice class and an open class with more than a dozen entries in each.

Don Dylage of the Barbara Worth stables, Santa Barbara, will bring Snipper W, national and California champion cutting horse for the events. Poco Lena will also be there. Among others entered are School Boy owned by Sydra and Jim Wood; Bobby Sox owned by Kay Starr; ocky Ford owned by Ed Tomel; Rusty owned by Charley Hertsing; and Little Punkin owned by Bill Clinton, are among the first entries to come in.

The judge of the cutting classes will be Chester Minton of Bakersfield who is one of the state's top judges. The events are both sponsored by the Pacific Coast Cutting Horse association.

Jimmy Bernard, who is in charge of the show, reports she has ribbons and trophies for all the other seven events, including a Seat and Hands class for Children, 13 years and under; Childrens Pairs Class, Bending Race, Sack Race, Trail Horse Class, Calf Roping and Team Roping.

Jimmy, who has lived in Palm Springs for many years, is the daughter of Travis Rogers and considered one of the five best horsewomen of the country. She shows hunters, jumpers, high tail horse, stock horses, trail horses and cutting horses, and has been one of the most consistent winners in the show circuit for the past five years. Since she has taken over the Thunderbird stables she has been giving lessons to all the Thunderbird children and has had amazing results.

Polo to Return
January 2 and 3

Indoor polo will return to Palm Springs January 2 and 3 after a vacation over the holidays, with the Palm Springs and Shadow Mountain Club teams hosting the San Bernardino squad.

Tentative matches have been scheduled for the following two weekends with San Diego and Beverly Hills.

Village Market Rallies to Trip Cravy's 52-50

Village Market broke into the win column for the first time this season Monday night with a 52 to 50 win over Cravy's.

It was a last quarter victory, with the Village Market quintet trailing 39 to 36 going into the period. The Market squad had led 16 to 13 at the end of the first quarter, and the score was tied 24—all at half time.

Jim Brown and Don Hensen had 16 and 15 points respectively to lead the Village Market scores, and John Wade took game scoring honors with 17.

Eight Races Scheduled for Sports Car Event Jan. 23

Eight races are scheduled for the Sixth Palm Springs Road Race on January 23 and 24 at the Palm Springs airport. George Cary, Jr., in charge, announced today.

They will include two novice owner events, a ladies' race, an MG race, two main events of 45 minutes for sports cars to 150cc and the first five cars in the Desert Trophy race.

THE COURSE will be 2.8 miles with a 6,000 foot straightaway similar to last year's, but with many more turns at the north end. This not only will be more interesting to spectators but also a more severe test of driving ability, Cary said. Cars may be seen going in at least six different directions from one of the four grandstands being erected.

Speeds clocked at last year's event, which attracted more than 20,000 spectators, were better than 141 miles per hour, and equipment improvement may improve this mark. A shorter course of 2.2 miles with 1,000 feet of straight road will be used for all but the two final events. This will give a decided aid to the smaller displacement cars which form the bulk of entries, Cary said.

LEADING SPORTS CAR Racing clubs in southern California are cooperating in the staging of the event, as well as the Lions Club of Palm Springs.

All drivers are qualified amateurs who compete for trophies only, and a field of more than 100 entries is expected from throughout the Western United States.

The program starts at noon Saturday, January 23, and at 1 p. m., Sunday, January 24. A Concours d'Elegance or showing of custom and imported cars will be held Sunday morning, January 24, at the Palm Springs Polo Grounds. The Concours is free to the public.

Banning Hands Marines First Defeat in Loop

Banning handed the 29 Palms Marine cagers their first defeat Monday evening 47 to 36, with a 14 point outburst in the final period of play.

The score was close up to that time, with the Pass quintet holding a 13 to 9 first quarter margin, then holding it at 20 to 16 at halftime, and losing ground in the third period 33 to 31.

Hamilton topped the Banning scorers with 16 points, and Chuck Duncan was high for the Marines with 11.

This was the first loss for the Marines in seven league games this season, and tightens the race, Banning and the Desert Nite Hawks are tied for second with 5 and 2 records.

CHRISTMAS BUSINESS

buying pre-Christmas days may find the volume of trade ahead of last year.

Statistics prove that there are more people residing in homes in Palm Springs than at any time in its history. Records also indicate that more people own their homes in Palm Springs than ever before too. Many new home owners formerly guested at various hotels in Palm Springs and became so entranced with this community's form of life they decided to buy or build their own homes.

This, it was pointed out by a multi-millionaire who made his fortune in making something out of nothing and building that something into a giant industry, makes for a solidity and soundness."

"I HAVE INVESTED my money in Palm Springs and many of my friends (all in the six or seven digit class because he named them) are buying or building their homes here too. Look, my boy," he emphasized, "Palm Springs is going places. The more hotels we have here, the more homes, the more shops and most of all the more recreational facilities this community can furnish for visitors, the more people this resort area will attract."

"I saw the same thing happen in Miami. It is bound and destined to happen here. These automobile freeways, fast airplane service and faster trains from metropolitan areas has enmeshed Palm Springs to a point comparative to the growth of these big cities. California is going places. Palm Springs is, too. Consider what I have said as a Christmas message to the people of this community."

EVERYBODY here knows this man. He is known internationally, too. His prediction is a good Christmas message! Another business man in the city known for his sagaciousness on a million dollar scale annually practically uttered the same statements.

Palm Springs is going places.

"Messiah" by Civic Chorus is Another Great Success

By LIV TOFT

Monday night's performance of the "Messiah" by the Civic Chorus weighs heavily on the scale of cultural life in Palm Springs and for the Choir it was a milestone. Great choir directors say that it takes at least five years to build a choir, and we had the impression that the Civic Chorus now is getting ready for the greatest and most demanding choral works. These were our thoughts on our way home from the concert after hearing the enthusiastic applause of an audience of more than 600.

The oratorio streamed down on us and enclosed us in the golden light of wonder that is new to us every Christmas and became new to us this year through this interpretation of Handel's "Messiah." From the promise given us in Leon Bennett's beautiful solo; through the anticipation of the first chorus "And the Glory of the Lord," to the wonder of the Pastoral Symphony and the enthusiasm of the Hallelujah Chorus—this was what Christmas means to us all; enlightenment, peace and good will.

THE SOLOISTS of the performance, with the exception of Leon Bennett, are all members of the Choir and Palm Springs residents. All of them gave us fine art—beautiful voices and musical interpretations. Evelyn Spikre, soprano soloist, was already known as the fine, musical singer who conquers any difficulty and gives us the auditorium of music lovers. Leba Mason, who sang the alto arias, possesses the rich warmth of a thoroughly cultivated and inspired singer that can lift a work of music to the highest level. The bass, Alex Hammond, interpreted the contrasts of a darkened world and a world of hope and joy with his rich voice and admirable technique. Christine Tomlinson at the organ proved again that she is not only an excellent accompanist but also a fine creative artist. She succeeded in expressing the wide register of emotions—the blessing, the wonder, the inexplicable mystery of the newborn child so that the music was as much feeling as sound.

AS WE KNOW, there is no concert hall in Palm Springs so that the choice of the Recreation Center might have seemed hazardous. However, the building had been very much improved, acoustically as well as esthetically, thanks to Henry Goldenberg and Zachary Pitts. The spirit and drive of the Palm Springs Civic Chorus and its director, Harry Tomlinson, were the focal point of the concert. To observant listeners, the enthusiasm of the group and the vision of its director, portend a musical future that will

Civil Defense Test Slated Next Monday Noon in Village

Note to early celebrants.
On Monday noon, when you hear sirens and whistles, don't get the impression that the New Year has arrived. It's a civil defense communications test.

Palm Springs and six other county cities are participating in the state-wide drill.

The public will take no part in the test. At 12 noon, an official notice will be received at the Palm Springs police department, where a civil defense "bell and light" system is located, and the test will be started. It will consist of a three-minute wailing siren or short blasts, followed by the all-clear of three one-minute blasts with two-minute silence periods between.

Other tests are scheduled for January 25, February 22, March 22 and April 26.

Christmas Seal Campaign Nears Goal of $26,500

With the active period of the 1953 Christmas Seal campaign drawing to a close $26,500 had been received at Riverside headquarters in the county wide seal sale.

Mrs. Russell W. Hills, chairman of the campaign in Palm Springs, said that although this means that the drive is currently $6,000 short of its final goal, late returns are closing the gap.

"There is every hope that when all who still plan to make returns on the seals they received in November respond, the campaign objectives will be reached," the chairman said.

It was pointed out that Seal Sale receipts from Palm Springs are up 8 per cent over last year at this date and indicate that the local sale will reach an all time high when all returns are in.

Desert Museum January Exhibit Being Arranged

New exhibits continue during January at the Desert Museum. Blankets, kachinas and blackware on exhibit are loaned by Bennett's Indian Shop. These Navajo blankets are beautiful museum pieces. The Bayeta is an old blanket woven from red yarn unraveled from Spanish soldiers' uniforms. Kachinas are known as dolls; they are actually made as representations of Deities or Gods and have a ceremonial significance. Slim and Patricia Moorten have on display a variety of cacti which are identified by their common names. George Miller has finished his insect collection and this is another display for January. Carl Eytels works are on temporary loan at Bullock's Wilshire but will be at the Desert Museum after January 8.

Winfield Line Talk at Museum Tuesday

Winfield Line, former president of the board of trustees of Desert Museum will again present a colored film at the Tuesday night "Desert Series." Last Tuesday, Line presented a beautiful film "Southwest Kaleidoscope."

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Becker of Chicago have returned to their Crest View drive home to spend the Winter after a leisurely Summer and early Fall in Italy.

District Explorer Scouts Back from Thrilling Week

They survived.
Four Palm Springs district Explorer Scouts, all from Desert Hot Springs who were chosen to take part in the national program of "survival training" sponsored by the United States Air Force were home again this week after an exciting and thrilling experience high in the sub-freezing Sierras near Stead Air Force base near Reno.

THE BOYS are Clayton and Gary Lampman, Marvin Yager and Allen Hathaway. They left a week ago Monday and returned this Monday.

They spent five full days and nights learning and practicing the air force technique of winning the battle with the elements.

Using discarded parachutes and tent poles whittled from tree branches and small trees for shelter and with a fire in the tent, they found comfort despite the low temperatures.

MEMBERS of the air force instructed the boys in the survival technique.

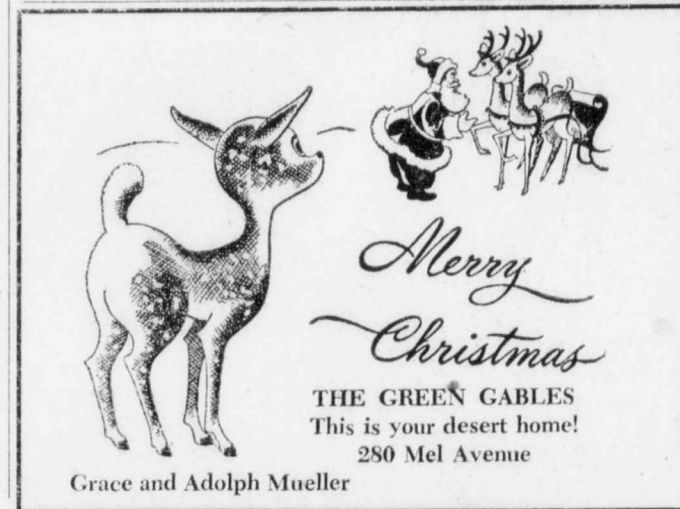

It was a success.
All four of the local Explorer Scouts along with 17 others from Riverside county and a total of 225 from all over California, returned home happy and sound.

And with a scroll from the Air Force honoring them.

County's Camels are Christened

Shieks and Arabs and beautiful Queen Scheherazade made a colorful background for the christening last week of the two baby camels recently purchased by the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival.

Sponsored by the Indian chamber of commerce with City Councilman Roy King as M. C. the affair was held beside the pool of Hotel Indio against a background of date palms and climaxed a contest to select names for the camels. Luke Christiansen, member of the Riverside County Fair Board and Ward Grant, publisher of the Coachella Valley Sun were judges and selected the names submitted by Mrs. George Scherer of La Quinta as most appropriate—Jameel (meaning beautiful) for the male and Noor (meaning Light) for the female.

Christmas Day Service at 9:30 at Cathedral City

A special Christmas worship service will be held in Community church, Cathedral City, Friday at 9:30 a. m. Parents and children are especially invited.

The regular church meeting for December 27 will include the baptism of small children. Dr. Graham Hunter, pastor, will direct the service beginning at 11 a. m. Bible school will precede, with a song session starting at 9:30.

Beginning Again Adventist Topic

"Land of Beginning Again" will be Pastor D. Kenneth Smith's sermon subject at the 11 o'clock services of Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday. In connection with this service, the Ordinations of Humility and the Lord's Supper will be observed.

At Sabbath services 1 a. m. Saturday, a special quarterly offering was taken to expand the Coral Sea Union College, a mission training college on the Island of New Britain in the South Seas. This training school will draw young people from the Solomons, the Bismarck Archipelago, Papua, New Guinea, and many adjacent islands.

When their training is completed, these native youth will penetrate deeper into the interior of New Guinea to work with the cannibal tribes there. World interest in Adventist mission work in the South Pacific Islands is keen because of the life-saving work of the Fuzzy Wuzzy Christians during World War II. Scores of Allied airmen shot down were rescued and saved by squads organized and keeping watch. Adventist boys in New Guinea guided armies over dangerous trails across the Owen Stanley Range and other mountains.

In traditional Christmas Eve fashion, Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Staley will hold open house for their friends this evening.

Traditional Midnight Service at St. Paul's Church Tonight

Following the tradition of the Episcopal church, the candle-light celebration of the Holy Eucharist will take place on Christmas Eve. The service is scheduled so that the consecration as the "Christ-mass" will take place shortly after the midnight hour, ushering in the Feast of the Incarnation.

This evening the prelude of Christmas Carols will begin at 11 p. m. under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hammond, and will include the less well known carols of many nations. The actual celebration of the Holy Eucharist will begin at 11:30 p. m. and will include special Christmas music, the service of Holy Communion itself being rendered chorally. As this is the most popular service of the Holiday season, the Rev. William A. Blondon Jr., advised arriving well before the carol service begins to be assured of seating space.

The service tomorrow, Christmas Day, will duplicate the Midnight service with the exception of the prelude of carols. The Christmas Day service will begin at 10 a. m. A sermon will be preached at both the Midnight service and the Christmas Day service.

Sunday Holy Communion will be celebrated twice, at 8 a. m. and at the Family Service at 9:30 a. m. The 11 a. m. service will combine the office of Morning Prayer with the well-known and popular carols of the Christmas season.

The Chancel Society of St. Paul's in the Desert is in charge of the special Yuletide decorations, under the direction of Mrs. Levering Moore.

Artistic Crib at St. Louis Church in Cathedral City Draws Attention

The artistic Christmas crib on the lawn in front of St. Louis church, Glenn at B street in Cathedral City, is attracting the admiration of many passers-by. The twenty five statues made in Germany, have been arranged in a beautiful setting by Margaret Davidson, a local artist. This is the third year that the Nativity scene has been placed outdoors. There is also an artistic creche in the church for the edification of all.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON SUBJECT

The rules of divine healing practiced by Christ Jesus are available today declares the Sunday Lesson - Sermon on "Christian Science" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

In the Golden Text Isaiah exclaims (52:9, 10): "Break forth in joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all nations."

According to a Bible selection from John's Gospel (14:6, 15:16) Jesus said to his followers, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. . . . If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Christ's Christianity is the chain of scientific being reappearing in all ages, maintaining its obvious correspondence with the Scriptures and uniting all periods in the design of God. . . . Our Master said, 'But the Comforter, shall teach you all things.' When the Science of Christianity appears, it will lead you into all truth."

Dictatorship and Freedom, Topic

One of the most timely and challenging subjects of the day will be discussed by Harvey B. Schechter, sociologist of note and student of the problem of minorities, at the Jewish Community Center, this Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Schechter will speak on "Dictatorship and American Freedom." This address will mark the second important cultural event in this season's Center Lecture Series. A question period will follow the lecture.

Israel Reports Topic Tomorrow

News from Israel will be the sermon topic of Rabbi Arthur B. Lebowitz at the Sabbath services tomorrow evening at 8:15 o'clock at Temple Isaiah. The Rabbi will discuss many of the recent events in that young country. The temple choir under the direction of Harry Tomlinson will furnish the musical portions of the services. Saturday morning services are held at ten o'clock. There will be no Religious School classes on this Sunday, due to the Winter vacation.

Dennis, the Menace By Ketchum

I RISE TO REMARK
By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

For the twenty-first time, the writer of this weekly letter rises to remark
MERRY CHRISTMAS
Over the years, it has been the custom to add to this happy wish some cheerful and optimistic note regarding the national picture. Even in the darkest days, there have been reasons for hope and for encouragement. Christmas, in spite of increasing commercialism, is still the birthday of the Prince of Peace, and the world today, whether through intelligence or fear, and not overlooking a few exceedingly hot spots, is more peaceful than it was a year ago.
I will make one observation for the benefit of thoughtful men and women. Our eyes and our thought naturally turn towards the Holy Land. We might do well to realize, with some seriousness, that approximately two thousand years ago, or more accurately at the height of the Roman Empire's position as a world power, that little area comprising Palestine (about as big as the State of New Jersey), and parts of Syria, Lebanon and Jordan, to give their modern names, supported a population of almost 50 million people, on the highest living standards of that day. It was an area of many fertile fields, of forests and of mines, and of (for the period) prosperous and happy people. Today the forests and mines are gone, the fields are arid, and it can not support a third of that many people, many of whom are desperate. We appropriate $150,000,000 a year to feed the refugees in that area.
NATIONS ARE LIKE individuals or families or businesses; they rise and fall, depending on courage and strength and hard work. When a nation gets soft, and thinks the government will support its people and subsidize them and direct them and care for them, from the cradle to the grave (whether it be Rome or any modern nation), the days of that nation are numbered.
So this Christmas, while we think with respect and devotion on those passages which have to do with Christmas, particularly the promise of "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men," we should also think of the lamentation of Jeremiah, regarding the great city of his day, "She that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, now is she become tributary!" and apply it to the nation in which we live, and which stands today as the hope of all people who want liberty and good will and peace.

County Fair
Budget Approved
by Supervisors
County supervisors gave unanimous approval Monday to a budget of $185,848 for the County Fair and National Date Festival at Indio for 1954.
The county government will put up about two thirds of that and the state government one third, and the county government is expected to get all of its money back in gate receipts and other income from the fair.
The supervisors gave their approval after Supervisor Homer Varner of Indio reported that he had scrutinized the budget and found it to be sound.
The state government gets no return from the fair.
The budget, which is for the calendar year—January 1, 1954, to January 1, 1955—is about $5,000 greater than the budget for the year now ending.

Savings Bond Sales in County Increase
Sales of U. S. Savings Bonds in Riverside County so far this year continued to make sharp gains as November sales increased the lead to $918,697.31 over sales in the January-November period in 1952. J. S. Bordwell, chairman of the county's volunteer Savings Bonds committee, announced today.
It was reported that county sales at the end of November this year were 69.5 per cent greater than those of a year ago and that percentage-wise they top both the Southern California and national gains by "substantial margins."

Warmest Greetings and Sincere Thanks
We have much more to be thankful for in this great nation of ours than do millions who live in other countries.
Here we may go to the church of our choice to worship in the manner of our faith.
We who live in this wonderland of the desert may be thankful that we are away from the hustle and bustle of the crowded city and are left in peaceful contentment.
With these thoughts in mind I sincerely wish all of my friends and good neighbors the cheeriest Christmas and that all of their dreams for the New Year shall come true.

LETTERS To The EDITOR

IN DEFENSE OF XMAS

Dear Mr. Jaynes: Your editorial of a week ago, the crusade against the use of Xmas for Christmass, is noble—in a Quixotic sort of way. Unfortunately, you are fighting a supposed giant who is really the mere shadow of a windmill.

You will find that X has been used from the beginning of Christian times as a symbol of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is found on ancient altars as well as modern. Sometimes the letter P cuts through the X. At other times the X stands for the Cross of St. Andrew in churches honoring that Saint.

The X too has been used not only as a symbol but actually in place of the Name of Christ. Your aversion to Xmas is (probably the same as mine) due to the commercialization of the symbolic word as well as the feeling that people are embarrassed to use His Name, Jesus Christ; they therefore hide behind the X—a poor hiding place.

But then, hasn't the meaning of Christmas itself become obscured behind tons of Norse Evergreen Trees; bushels of Celtic Mistletoe; yards of Anglo-Saxon red flannel—not to neglect gallons of grog and toddlers; buckets of puddings and fields of turkeys or fat geese served to us by Charles Dickens?

But, like it or not, the Xs have it.

Most cordially,
IRVING SUSSMAN

Bank to Sponsor Christmas Story

"Christmas in California," narrated by Ralph Story, and featuring the 32-voice choir of Mission San Luis Rey, will be presented for the second successive year under the sponsorship of Bank of America on Christmas Eve, from 9 to 9:30 p. m. on Station KCMJ according to Branch Manager F. G. Ingram.

The program, produced in the chapel at the 160-year-old mission, includes the story of Los Pastores (The Shepherds), a play originally performed by the Indians each year at Christmas time on a stage in front of the missions.

Large Audience Hears Hancock Talk on Mexico

Author Ralph Hancock had a large audience at Frances Stevens auditorium Saturday night for his illustrated lecture on "Baja California." The colored slides were interesting and his professional narration of life in the primitive area of Lower California was enlightening information for any potential visitor.

The audience saw fishing sites that are, in Hancock's opinion, the best in the western hemisphere.

He informed the audience that for climate, opportunity to indulge in one's favorite sport and where money will stretch the furthest, there is no place like Baja California.

Because of his popular appeal Hancock will present another

Confident Living

NORMAN VINCENT PEALE
The Greatest Gift of All

Long ago, during the Middle Ages a certain monastery was famous for an unusual and charming Christmas custom. Each year, the monks would erect in a corner of their chapel a life-sized representation of the scene in the stable of the inn at Bethlehem. The shepherds, the Three Kings, the Mother and the Christ Child in the manger were beautifully carved and painted wooden statues. Then, on Christmas Eve, after their prayers, they would each, in order of seniority from the Abbot to the lowliest brother, present a gift of love to the Child. The preparation of these gifts occupied all their spare time during each Fall.

In the monastery was a dill-witted fellow who served as porter. He had come from a small village whose only contact with the finer things of life was the occasional strolling performer who would come to the marketplace, delight the children, collect a few pennies and go his way. While the other brothers worked at their gifts of talent or craftsmanship, the new brother, the humble porter, could only pray for some idea as to what he might give.

Finally, just before Christmas, he thought he had found an answer to his prayers. From then on, he spent all his extra time in his little cell. No one knew what he was doing, but all suspected he was working on his gift and they wondered what it might be.

Then, at last, Christmas Eve came and the monks assembled in the chapel. First, the Abbot offered a moving prayer of his own writing; then the brother organist played a lovely anthem he had composed; the brother chorister raised his voice in melodious song; and the brother scribe presented an illuminated manuscript bright with gold on the parchment.

Each monk, in turn, stepped up to the manger, looked down at the painted, unsmiling face of the Babe and offered his gift. The rich and wonderful work of their hands heaped up around the manger made the very air seem to sparkle.

Finally, it was the brother porter's turn. He stood at the manger, empty-handed, and looked down. Then he reached into the capacious folds of his gown, took out three roundly colored balls, tossed one high into the air and began to juggle.

The monks gasped with surprise at this sacrilege and the Abbot rushed forward to pull the lunatic away. But, before he touched the poor fool, he looked down at the Christ Child to see that it had not been desecrated. He stepped back in amazement. For there, on the painted lips of the wooden image, he saw a kindly smile of understanding and appreciation.

Victor Hugo and others have told this story better than I, but all have made the same simple point: One should give what one has, and, if the gift is one of love, nothing else is important.

In 1513, Fra Giovanni, sent a beautiful Christmas greeting to a friend. I want to send it to you in 1953:

"I salute you: There is nothing much I can give you which you have not; but there is much that, while I cannot give you, you can take.

"No heaven can come to us unless our hearts find rest in it today. Take Heaven.

"No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in the present. Take Peace.

"The gloom of the world is but a shadow; behind it, yet within our reach, is joy. Take Joy.

"And so at this Christmas time, I greet you, with the prayer that for you, now and forever, the day breaks and the shadows flee away."

Foot Notes

By LYNN EMRICK

With the Christmas holidays just at our doorsteps a few women suggested that I elaborate on Christmas decorations using the same theme as I did a few Tuesdays ago at our desert series program. There is much Christmas cheer here in the desert and one can easily find many ideas to decorate homes for the holidays.

Gourds are found anywhere. Paint them in pastels and sprinkle with dime store snow. You can use these gourds on the Christmas tree or for table displays. Buckwheat makes a beautiful festive tree if you trim with small bright ornaments. The delicate lace-like branches can be utilized in a number of ways. The trumpet buckwheat is wonderful for decorations. Use razor blade and cut bulb at an angle — insert small colorful candles in each bulb. For the base use driftwood or cactus skeleton. The primrose root painted or in its natural color is ideal for table decorations. Smoke Tree, desert holly and desert berries make beautiful displays for buffets.

There are innumerable ways to spread the Christmas cheer and let's do it with the love of Christmas. The best place to start is at our front door. Magnolia leaves and desert holly or magnolia leaves and desert berries make an attractive wreath for the main entrance. Make a loop from a discarded coat hanger and place individual magnolia leaves around using fine wire to bind. Center with berries or ornaments. Paint Smoke Tree red or green or use in natural color, tie with red ribbon and decorate with ornaments or berries and hang on the front entrance.

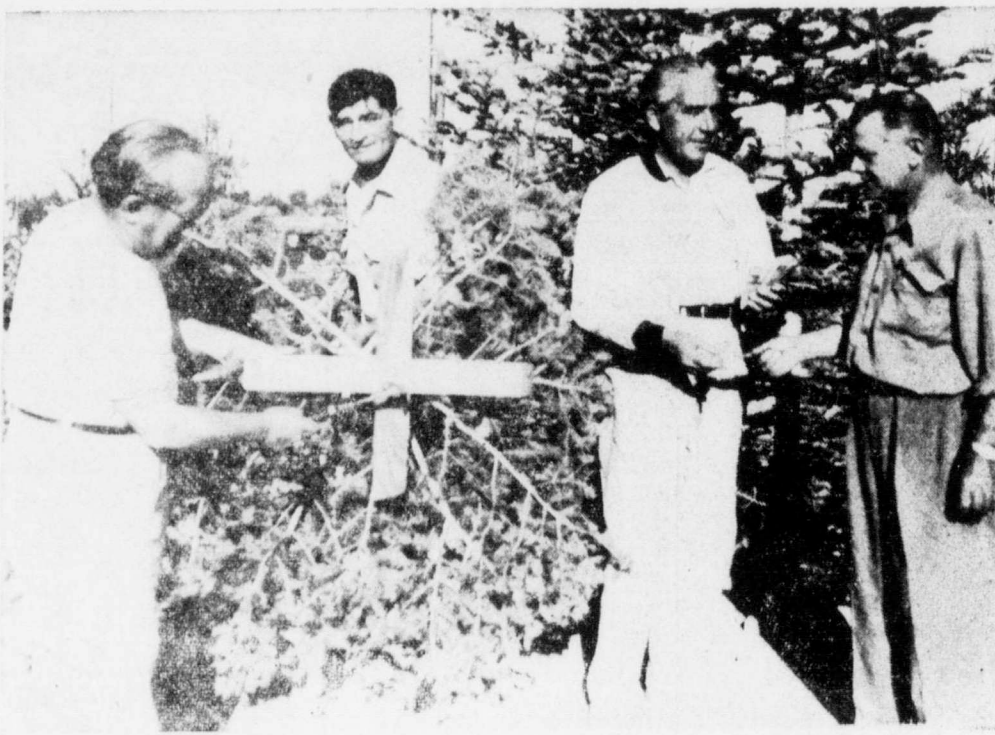

If your Christmas includes a houseful of children greet them with Santa. Cut red berries to fit door; then paste Santa mask, belt, mittens and boots. Another idea for the home with youngsters is to have a toy soldier painted on a cardboard cut out. A drum is an open hat box filled with greens. Add dime store candles, bells and what have you.

Police Escorts Serve as Insurance Against Robberies

"It's only escort service, an insurance for us," Police Chief John S. Davis said today in answering reports that police officers were used by several businesses to personally deposit their receipts at local banks.

"The department provides escort service whenever the occasion arises in order to prevent thefts which would require many man-hours to investigate, arrest and prosecute the perpetrators," Chief Davis said.

At the present time, two business places are accorded this escort service whenever needed, although not on a regular schedule, and one bank receives regular service.

"This is a practice no different than in other cities,

With Hildy Crawford

Yes, Virginia, there's a Palm Springs!

It's as American as chewing gum... with the piquant chicle flavor that comes... from a combination of ideas... brought here from the New England states... from the Bible Belt... from the hustle and bustle of Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City... from the sophisticated San Francisco... the hurly-burly of Greater Los Angeles... from the Never-Never Land of Hollywood... from the rain countries up North... and from the "legend-in-the-making" at old Fort Oliver at 1000 Palms...

It's a desert gem... as strange as the rocks that glow only in fluorescent lights... By day it glitters in the desert sunshine... which strikes shafts of brilliance from the many facets of sapphire swimming pools... By night... it's decked with neon jewels... and the necklace of lighted Palm trees that is a double strand of radiance along Palm Canyon drive...

In a semi-Tiffany setting of pronged mountains... it ornaments the native beauty of the desert... in artful contrast to the windswept sand dunes... and the pastels of the far-off mountains...

It's the still beauty of the desert nights... a-glitter with stars... and the warm beauty of desert days... It's the romantic rose-glow of the Tower of Stars at El Mirador... and the finger of light that plays above the Lone Palm...

It's the smart allure of Palm Canyon shops... stuffed with precious wares from all over the world...

It's the unbelievable beauty of The Tennis Club... a-glow with lights on the mountainside... It's the glamour of the Racquet Club and Don the Beachcombers... and the exquisite, gemlike perfection of the Biltmore...

It's the gaiety and showmanship of Chi Chi... and those superb brand steaks at Saddle and Sirolo... It's the green light at Howard Manor and a beautiful exterior... like a Christmas card illustration... It's the golden diningroom at Hotel the Oasis... the tradition of the Desert Inn... the fun at the Doll House... and the intimate Dunes with Ruby and Connie... and the informality of The Ranch...

It's the beauty of a Paul Grimm painting... and the fascinating mart in the Desert Farmers Market... It's the Palm Springs Playhouse with Herb Rogers theater-in-the-round...

It's desert breakfast rides... with Jack Boyer's chuckwagon grub... and Johnny Boyle's western songs... It's golf and tennis, swimming and polo... nightclubbing and cafe society...

It's walled estates and desert retreats... homes, churches schools and markets...

It's Desert Circus Week and zany hats... and Western Week, with some in jeans and flannel shirts and others in $1000 outfits... It's the Cross high on the hillside... beautiful Easter music... It's Little Bear leading a parade... and Conky taking pictures...

It's all things to all people... and those who know it best... love it the most...

Yes, Virginia, there's a Palm Springs!

... and here's sand in your shoes... and a Merry Christmas wish... that the approaching New Year... will bring you many days of desert warmth... and nights of desert gaiety...

Bill Boggess Hosts Yule Dinner Party

William Boggess hosted a pre-Christmas cocktail and dinner party at La Paz Guest Ranch last evening.

The dinner party included the George F. Barrett (recently arrived from Chicago for the winter season), the Harry Darts, Barney Hinkles, James Hammonds, the Charles Beckers, the Herbert Pritzlaffs of Palm Desert, John and Eliza Gaillois, Mrs. Louise Celestin and her mother, Mrs. Strauss, who is visiting here from Beverly Hills, Tony Campbell, Mary B. Nelson, Jeano Bailard, Michele, famed French chef, did the dinner menu.

Two Georgia Girls Here for Christmas

Two young girls from Macon, Georgia flew out to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Sydney K. Schiff of 421 Santa Rosa.

Patricia Lewis and Martha Hancock, teen-agers, who arrived Monday morning by air are daughters of friends of Mrs. Schiff, who is a native of Georgia.

The young visitors are both pianists (they study at Wesleyan College) and love swimming in the Schiff's pool.

Daughter is Home to Spend the Holidays

Miss Janis DeFrancis, who is a freshman at UCLA, is home to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeFrancis.

The DeFrancis family, who came here from Meriden, Connecticut, bought a home at 1180 May drive about six weeks ago, and Mr. DeFrancis is associated with Theresa Press, Realtor.

They had been wintering in Palm Springs for a number of years and finally decided to make it their home.

CHRISTMAS CAROLERS — Adding immensely to the Christmas spirit in the Village was the caroling of the 60-voice chorus from Katherine Finchy School, directed by Mrs. Angela Brennan. The children, wearing white surplices and red ties and carrying lighted tapers, made an appealing appearance and the old, loved carols took on new meaning as the childish voices were raised in song.

Notables Dine at The Beachcomber

Among the celebrities noted at Don the Beachcombers this past weekend were the Bob Crosbys and their children.

Rudolph Friml (composer of the "Desert Song") and Mrs. Friml dined there both Friday and Saturday night, and the Walt Disneys were there Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spinks. Both families have homes at Smoke Tree.

Lucile Ball and Desi Arnez were dining with the Norman Krasnas, and J. J. Braun (owner of Bel-Air hotel) who is staying at La Quinta, was hosting a large party. Judge and Mrs. Both the president of Columbia Pictures) were entertaining the Davis Factors, who are here for the holidays.

The Cliff Ganetts (of Air Research) were there with the J. A. Kindelbergers of Palm Desert. The Russell Wades and their party were celebrating Mrs. Wade's birthday, and the Stan Jaloffs and Leo Bakers were celebrating the Bakers' anniversary.

Worcesters Host Party at Tennis Club

Saturday evening The Tennis Club was the scene of an enjoyable dinner hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Worcester of Palm Desert.

Among the guests enjoying dinner and dancing were Dr. and Mrs. M. Harvey and Mrs. Edna Value.

Jarrettes Ask Friends for Egg-nogs

Trixie and Jerry Jarrette have invited friends to join them in their garden at 350 Paseo El Mirador Sunday afternoon for their annual egg-nog party.

About 40 have been asked to sip the egg-nogs which Trixie concocts from an old English recipe.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Graettinger will spend Christmas in Ontario with his sister and her husband, Judge and Mrs. A. D. Mitchell.

Club Has Christmas Party in Magnificent Setting

The annual Christmas party of the Palm Springs Woman's Club held Monday at the clubhouse, was one of the most beautiful ever held. Member-artist Georgia Caldwell Freeman was in charge of the decorations and she surpassed even her magnificent efforts of the past. From the tiny gift "Santa's" which were pinned upon the members as they entered the door to the glittering figures of Santa, his reindeer and sleigh as they sped across the drapery back-drop framing the lovely tea table, the decor bespoke the loving hands of a master-artist.

The stage was magnificent with sprayed desert foliage sprinkled with silver and hung with stars with little hand-painted faces, building to the center focal point of the large silvery blue lighted cross—a fitting setting for the theme of a "Religious Christmas."

Club President Mrs. S. P. Manasse opened the meeting and dispensed with all business other than a very few announcements. She did take a few moments to explain the "litter-bug" project which the club is financing with the aid of our local Boy Scouts to help clear the highways of beer-can debris.

Special guests of the day were the members of sister-organization Welfare and Friendly Aid, and Welfare President Mrs. Earl Coffman was present to receive the Woman's Club check presented by Mrs. Manasse, and the toys and food stuffs brought by the club women for presentation to the poor at Christmas by Welfare.

Reverend P. Martin Baker of San Marino and Palm Desert, was special guest speaker and compared pagan customs of the past 4,600 years with Christian Christmas as we know them today and how they have developed since the advent of Christianity.

Dr. Fredric Woelner, professor of education at U.C.L.A., was also present with his wife, and spoke briefly on the meaning of Christmas.

The members and guests were delighted with the folk songs and Christmas carols sung and played by the artists of the day, Miss Alice Lee, soprano; William Swan, baritone; and Raymond McFeeters, pianist and accompanist.

Mrs. Thomas Holland served as tea chairman, and her committee included Mesdames Valentine Blatz, Armand Turonnet, Clarence Simpson, H. C. Smith, John Lapp and Mace Gazda.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Smith of Pasadena will move into their new home at Smoke Tree Ranch on December 27. This was the only house built at the Ranch this year and brings the number of Smoke Tree homes to 60.

El Mirador Employees Have Party

Around 225 El Mirador employees and their families enjoyed the Christmas party held in the Starlight Patio and private diningrooms at the hotel Monday evening.

Eddie LeBaron and his orchestra played for the occasion, and there was a tree with "grab-bag" gifts for everyone. Skits and singing and dancing made it a merry occasion, with Manager Rudi Sidler wishing every one a Merry Christmas. Buffet and punch were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shattuck are out from Los Angeles to spend the holidays at the Palm Gardens. With them are Mrs. Shattuck's sisters, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Downing and Mrs. Sally Moore of Jackson, Mississippi.

Williams to Host Guests on Christmas

A tall silver tip tree, with old-fashioned decorations, stands in the livingroom at the Stewart Williams' home at 333 Stevens road, and will welcome their Christmas dinner guests tomorrow night.

The Williams' guests will be Mr. and Mrs. O. E. L. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, Mr. Albert Frev and Mr. Harry Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Garstin and daughter Cynthia of Boston, arrived at Smoke Tree Ranch in time for the holidays. Cynthia will be returning East to school January 4, but her parents will remain here for the winter.

Tennis Club Style Luncheon Features Beebe's Fashions

The Tennis Club's beautiful Bougainvillea Room was the setting for a pleasant style show luncheon Saturday noon, with club members modeling fashions from Beebe's.

Lee Bering opened the show in his inimitable fashion while Dave Sloan and his Detroiters furnished background music.

The show opened with a group of luxurious lounging robes. Lynn Jennings' brunette beauty was accentuated by a black velvet robe styled by Flobert. The front insert was of white lace with pearl embroidery.

A magnificent, full-length robe of quilted gummetal taffeta, lined dramatically with cerise, was modeled by Virginia McLaughlin. A two-piece purple velvet with jeweled belt was stunning on red-haired Taylor Dunlevie, and Jane Wade wore a purple quilted taffeta morning coat, chaise longue-lined, with jeweled buttons, pretty enough to be worn as a dress coat.

A smart sport costume of white, with navy blue blouse, just right for resort wear, a charming toast-colored corduroy ensemble, of pedal pushers, vest and blouse, a red taffeta evening gown so appropriate for the holiday season, and a glamorous black and white evening gown, were highlights of the show.

At one table were Mesdames Homer McKee, Henry Reid, Dorothy Hoover, Charles Dart, Edward Maggard, Wilson Mc-Nary, Frank Camp and Eber Kanaga.

At another, Mesdames J. Beatty McCullough, Andrew M. Spinks, Della Gates, M. E. Schwab, Horace Major, Bruce Burritt, Charles Stimson, with Mrs. J. W. Warren as hostess.

Mrs. Jack Callahan of Redlands, was entertaining her mother Mrs. Edwin Dimond of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and her sister Mrs. H. Robert Monroe of Highland. They were guests of Mrs. Keith McLeod.

Mrs. Austin McManus had Mrs. H. Bedford-Jones as her guest.

Interested spectators at the fashion show were Ivan Petroff, operatic baritone, and Mrs. Petroff, J. Leland Anderson, A. Park Smoot, Mildred Gagon and Allen Jensen.

Service Club of St. Paul's Has Yule Party

The Service Club of St. Paul's in-the-Desert held their Christmas party in the parish hall at the church on Friday evening.

There were Christmas contests and the guests helped decorate the tree and danced to recorded music furnished by the Min-thorne Music company.

The party was arranged by Mrs. Nelson Nickerson, club president.

Cocktail Party Fetes Visitor

Paul Trousdale was host at a cocktail party Saturday night honoring Lou Hyland of Honolulu, who is here visiting her mother Mrs. Eleanor Kane.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thrasher, Lee Bering, the Frank Bogerts, Jean Cameron and Sally Smith, who were down from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Corliss, Bill Bogess, the George Barretts, Harold Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham.

AT FASHION SHOW — Among the luncheon group watching the fashion show at The Tennis Club Saturday noon, was this party which was hostess-ed by Mrs. J. W. Warren. Around table, from left, Mrs. J. Beatty McCullough, Mrs. Andrew M. Spinks, Mrs. Della Gates, Mrs. M. E. Schwab, Mrs. Horace Major, Mrs. Bruce Burritt, Mrs. Charles Stimson and Mrs. Warren.

Dr. Gazda Here for Holidays

Mimi and Campbell Watson (who bought the Hotel Mayan in Los Angeles this year) are literally rolling out the red carpet for Villagers, Mrs. Mace Gazda reports.

Mrs. Gazda stayed there when she flew into town to meet Dr. Gazda upon his arrival from Chicago for the holidays.

It was 2 below when he left Chicago, the plane passed through 38 below temperatures, and the thermometer stood in the 90's when he reached Los Angeles, the doctor said.

While they were in Los Angeles the Gazdas attended the big party given by the Irwin Eisenbergs at The Chateau in Pasadena.

The Gazdas will have Christmas dinner at their Canyon Place home. Their guests will be Col. and Mrs. Herman W. Marcus of Louisville, Kentucky (he owns a string of race horses and part of a hotel in Florida), who are paying their first visit to Palm Springs.

Hornet Survivor and Bride Honeymoon in Village

Honeymooning in the Village and enjoying the beauty of the desert at Christmas time are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Christensen, Jr.

The bride, the former Hazel Press of Rye, New Jersey, was a Palm Springs resident in 1948 and 1949 and has lived for the past three years in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

A native of Boston, Mr. Christensen has spent the past 12 years in service. He was with aviation units in Japan, Africa and the Pacific Island, and was one of the lucky survivors of the sunken aircraft carrier Hornet in October 1942.

Receiving his discharge in Boston this month, he arrived by plane last week to be married in California, where they plan on making their home.

While here they are the house guests of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Press, well-known Palm Springs realtors and builders.

Many Spend Holidays at Oasis Hotel

The glowing warmth of the lighted Christmas tree burning outside Hotel the Oasis' entrance is reflected inside the beautiful dining room. Many will be assembled there for their Christmas festivities.

Among those spending the holiday week at Hotel the Oasis are: Mrs. W. F. Harwood accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Harwood, all of Los Angeles. And arriving early this week from down San Diego way for one of their many winter visits to the Oasis were Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Hudson who are staying until Monday.

Others joining the holiday celebration at the Oasis are: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Kenner and daughter, Westwood; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hawkins and Mrs. Mary Elder, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sexton, Santa Barbara; Mrs. Tennant, of the Tennant Galleries on Wilshire boulevard and others.

One family Christmas dining group will assemble three generations when the Dewey Metz-dorfs dine with the Robert Metz-dorfs and the latter's young daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Metz-dorf senior arrived from the Mayfair Hotel in Los Angeles to spend a week in the desert sunshine.

Hunts to Hold Open House on Christmas Day

Al and Nellis Hunt will have a family dinner and then hold open house for their friends at their San Lorenzo road home tomorrow.

Spending Christmas with the Hunts are their mothers, Mrs. A. A. Hunt of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Dora Clark of Seal Beach, and Mrs. Hunt's sister, Mrs. Doris Wilcox, also of Seal Beach.

HONEYMOON HERE — Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Christensen Jr. (she is the former Hazel Press) are honeymooning in Palm Springs.

Pennsylvanians Holiday Here

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Fairfax arrived Tuesday from Pennsylvania to spend a week as houseguests of Mrs. H. Bedford-Jones at her Palm Valley Ranch.

Mr. Fairfax, who is retired now, was on the English stage for many years as a leading juvenile.

Jock Williamson is off to spend Christmas week with the Kirk Johnsons at their Montecito home, but will be back to spend New Year's in Palm Springs.

Smoke Tree Holidays are Festive

Smoke Tree Ranch has gone all out for Christmas decorations this year. The entrance gate is strung with colored lights and passersby on the highway can see a cowboy Santa Claus mounted on a bucking broncho.

A smoke tree, decorated with blue lights stands on the lawn by the ranch house, and Santa and his reindeer-drawn sleigh are mounted on the roof.

Carolers serenaded the colonists as they trimmed the Christmas tree in the lounge on Tuesday night, and the evening Santa Claus will make his appearance with a full pack.

Manor Employees Have Party

Beautiful Howard Manor that itself looks like a Christmas card scene was a fitting setting for the Christmas party given by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Howard Tuesday night for their fifty employees and their families.

Large white Christmas bells and a beautifully-trimmed white tree decorated the dining room, where a buffet supper was served.

Adding to the festivities was the appearance of Ray Bolger who is spending a few days at Howard Manor.

The Howard Manor's outdoor tree, which stands by the swimming pool, is interestingly grouped with two life-sized carolers and white reindeer.

Ryans Leave on Winter Trip

Mr. and Mrs. D. Francis Ryan leave right after Christmas and will spend the New Years in Las Vegas, going on to Florida, Havana and the Virgin Islands.

They have rented their home on North Patencio to Dr. Anson Park of Lubbock, Texas. Formerly associated with the Mayo Clinic, Dr. Park has extensive oil holdings in Texas. He is a bachelor.

Daughter Born to the Kennys

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Kenny of Van Nuys are the parents of a daughter born Friday evening at the North Hollywood Maternity hospital. The baby has been named Kathryn Linda.

Mrs. Kenny is the former Peggy Jane Brown, daughter of George Brown of La Serena and the father is engaged in the paper and gift supplies business.

Family Dinner at Woods Home

Christmas dinner will be a family affair at the home of the John Woods at 701 North Patencio.

Joining them for dinner tomorrow evening will be her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrison, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrison Jr. all of Palm Springs.

Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Marks and children Grant and Richard of Richland, Washington, are here to spend the holidays with Mrs. Marks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Frieddert of 710 Paseo de Anza.

Baylys Are Guests of P. K. Nichols

Recent guests of the P. K. Nichols at Palm Desert were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bayly of Pasadena. Mr. Bayly is president of Annandale Golf club of Pasadena which will open its beautiful new clubhouse in March or April.

The famous old clubhouse which had stood for so many years was completely destroyed by fire about a year ago. On rolling ground at the foot of San Rafael hills, it is one of California's most beautiful golf courses.

Both the Nichols and Baylys live in Pasadena. The Nichols have a winter home at Palm Desert and are there almost every weekend. Mrs. Nichols is secretary of the United Nations group for the desert area.

Ray Bolger was a guest at the Howard Manor for a couple of days, the first part of the week.

Wades Host Buffet This Evening

Jane and Russell Wade will be hosts at a Christmas Eve buffet at their home at 1422 Mesquite avenue.

Lending the holiday atmosphere, the Wade's old-fashioned tree is decorated according to family custom with candy canes, strings of popcorn, and glittering icicles and ornaments.

Spending Christmas Eve with the Wades will be Tom and Virginia Curtis, George Cameron and Miss Yole Napier.

Holiday Guests at El Mirador

Ed Hand (head of M and M Trucking company of Buffalo, New York), and his son Eddie arrived Monday night to spend the holidays at El Mirador.

Other holiday guests include Mr. and Mrs. William Goetz of Hollywood, Mrs. Danny Kaye, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Goodfried.

Guild Hangs New Work at El Mirador

William Darling, Axel Linus and Miriam Williamson have completed the hanging of many fine pictures for the new art exhibit at the El Mirador.

This represents the work of the Painter's and Sculptor's Guild of which William Darling is chairman and is the first exhibit of the Desert Art Center, to be held in Palm Springs this year. Shortly after the first of the year, a showing will be made of Agnes Pelton's abstracts at the same gallery.

This space in the El Mirador has been given to the Desert Art Center and is open to the public free of charge. Lloyd Mason Smith, recreation director at El Mirador, will be in charge of the exhibits.

Teddy Noell Returns to Racquet Club

Christmas night dinner dancing at the Racquet Club sees the return of Teddy Noell's popular dance orchestra for the Club's Winter season.

Dancing will be a nightly event at the Club, except for Monday evenings, from now on until the end of the season.

Noell who made such a hit with Club members and guests last season, has been appearing at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas throughout the Summer and Fall months.

His return for the Winter season is in answer to popular demand among the Club's members.

Noell's orchestra will be augmented by extra men to provide continuous music for the Club's justly famed New Year's Eve party, which is a complete sell out.

Guests at the Racquet Club who will be on hand to enjoy the first of the regular dance nights include Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sinton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keating with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wellesley of London, England, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tavelman, E. J. Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lichtman, Mr. and Mrs. James Gates, Mr. Ben Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cohn, Mr. Spencer Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. William Hollingsworth.

Jam Session

Police Act When Drums are Heard

An impromptu jam session was ended by police early Sunday morning, before the musicians really got rolling. The first sound of the drums at the extreme end of Alejo road brought a complaint by nearby residents, and the police went immediately to the scene. Officers found part of a school band having a last minute session before returning to their homes, and the juveniles quickly dispersed upon seeing the squad car.

PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA
Thursday, December 24, 1953

Gosh, what wonderful weather... and what a swell town to live in... Fine stores for Christmas shopping... all the advantages of a metropolitan city without the traffic problem... good clear air too... hope you all enjoyed the full moon this past week.

The following incident could only happen at Shadow Mountain club... Late one evening last week just a few were dining... The Tom Browns at one table... Beth Belden, Rose Davies and the Camerons at another... The Adrian Schwick's and a couple at a third... Tom Brown is a darn good piano player and sings out of this world... It was orchestra Hal Prudens' nite off... Tom played and sang after about an hour... Beth Belden recognized the man at Schwick's table... he, the great composer Nacio Herb Brown, was enjoying Tom's show... after some persuasion Brown No. 2 stepped up to the piano and knocked off 20 or more of his hit tunes, "Tomburination," "Painted Doll," etc., the point to the story was Tom Brown's remark "I'll never play the piano again unless I know everyone in the room."

Eudora Pace entertained the girls from commercial department of the telephone company Monday. It was a pre-Christmas fiesta at Eudora's home in Rancho Mirage... gifts for everyone including little Joan Pace... Ruth Scharf, her daughter Stephanie, Jeanne Hart, Mary Applegate, Mildred Wyss, Helen Rajcher, Carol Tishka... In and out... Matt Dennis, stopped by with his very lovely bride of three months... Virginia... He's been working in movies produced by Ida Lupino and is opening at the Captain's Table, New Years Eve... then back to the desert, we hope... The Franz Bauers back from Michigan... At Jean Harlow Bellos... Janie Powell, Mrs. Theo Stuart of San Francisco, and Barbara Covington, Commander and Mrs. J. C. Martin, Card from Pegi Scott and Ed Neilson... they tied the bonds December 6 at Manassas, Virginia... Something new has been added... Desert Air Hotels' Christmas Chimes, they can be heard up in Magnesia Canyon and from Thunderbird to Palm Desert... Between the chimes wonderful Christmas carols float through the air... it's glamour in the desert... bringing laughter to your hearts...

A very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year...

Auto Fire Loss
Estimated at $75

The automobile of John H. Farmer of Indio was damaged to the extent of $75 in a fire Sunday at the Steak Ranch on Highway 111.

California Division of Forestry unit subdued the blaze which is thought to have been caused by a short in wiring.
